Mr. Patrick Langham

High School Honor Jazz Band Conductor

Mr. Patrick Langham is an experienced educator and performer with an 18-year career at the University of the Pacific. As Professor and Director of Jazz Studies, Langham created the Pacific Jazz Studies degree programs. During his tenure at Pacific, he has traveled to Spain as visiting jazz conductor, overseen performances in Paraguay, and directed at the Monterey Jazz Festival, Reno Jazz Festival, and Dizzy's Club-Jazz at Lincoln Center in New York City. In 2017, Langham was awarded the California Music Educators Association Jazz Educator Award honoring excellence in jazz education and performance. He is currently the Past President of the California Alliance for Jazz. University of the Pacific honored him with the Champion of Diversity Award in 2018.

Ms. Cathy Ettle

Junior High Honor Band Conductor

Ms. Cathy Ettle is currently in her ninth year directing bands at Lincoln High School and twenty-second year at Sierra Middle School. Ms. Ettle earned her bachelor's degree from the University of the Pacific Conservatory of Music in Music Education and Saxophone Performance. She received her Master's degree from Michigan State University in Saxophone Performance and Woodwind Pedagogy. She is the Music Coordinator for the Lincoln Unified School District, home to a comprehensive K-12 music program. Ms. Ettle is also the Applied Saxophone Teacher at San Joaquin Delta College.

During her nine year tenure at Lincoln High School that band has gone from 65 students to 266 students. It is the largest student group on campus and performs throughout the community regularly. Before that Ms. Ettle built the Sierra Middle School band from 26 students in one class to over 150 students in three classes. Her bands have performed at Disneyland, Carnegie Hall, and the Kennedy Center. Ms. Ettle was named Band Director of the year by the Northern California Band Association in 2017 and was named the 2018 San Joaquin County Teacher of the Year.

Dr. Matthew Morse High School Honor Band Conductor

Dr. Matthew Morse is currently Director of Bands and Assistant Professor of Music in the School of Music at California State University, Sacramento, where he conducts the Symphonic Wind Ensemble and the Concert Band, oversees the Marching Band, and teaches courses in undergraduate and graduate conducting. He is in demand as a clinician and guest conductor throughout California and nationwide. The Sacramento State Symphonic Wind Ensemble was selected to perform at the California All-State Music Education Conference in Fresno in February 2019.

Prior to his appointment at Sacramento State, Dr. Morse graduated in May 2017 with a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Wind Conducting from the University of North Texas, where he was a conducting student of Eugene Migliaro Corporon. He also earned a Master of Arts degree in Instrumental Conducting in 2013 from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, where he was a student of Dr. Jack Stamp, and completed a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music from Thomas Edison State University in Trenton, New Jersey, in 2011.

Concurrent with finishing his undergraduate degree in 2011, Dr. Morse retired as a chief warrant officer four following a 25-year military music career with the United States Army. Early in his career, Dr. Morse served for nearly 12 years as a multi-instrumentalist performing primarily on euphonium and trombone and serving two tours each with the 4th Infantry Division Band at Fort Carson, Colorado, and the United States Army Japan Band, Camp Zama, Japan. In 1997, Dr. Morse was selected to become a warrant officer bandmaster and served as the commander and conductor of the 3rd Infantry Division Band at Fort Stewart, Georgia, the 1st Armored Division Band, then stationed Wiesbaden, Germany, and the 282nd Army “Victory” Band at Fort Jackson, South Carolina. He deployed as a band commander to combat zones in Bosnia-Herzegovina in 2000 and twice to Iraq during a 15-month period in 2003-04. In 2007, Dr. Morse was selected by competitive audition for his capstone assignment as the associate bandmaster and director of the Jazz Knights of the United States Military Academy Band at West Point, New York, where he shared the stage with numerous named artists and soloists.

Dr. Morse has appeared as a guest conductor with many groups, including the United States Army Field Band, the United States Army Europe Band and Chorus, and the West Point Band. As an instrumentalist, he has performed on bass trombone in recent years with the North Texas Wind Symphony, the Keystone Wind Ensemble, the Indiana University of Pennsylvania Wind and Jazz Ensembles, and the Pueblo Symphony Orchestra in Pueblo, Colorado, along with various freelance settings, including an orchestra backing Bernadette Peters in 2012 and a big band backing Doc Severinsen in 2014.

Dr. Morse’s military decorations include the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star Medal, and the Meritorious Service Medal with four oak leaf clusters. Other awards and recognitions include the John Philip Sousa Foundation’s Colonel George S. Howard Citation of Musical Excellence for Military Concert Bands for his work with the 282nd Army Band in 2007, and the South Suburban Conference (Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minnesota area) Achievement Award in Fine Arts in 2013. Additionally, Dr. Morse received the Thomas Jefferson High School (Bloomington, Minnesota) Fine Arts Hall of Fame award in 2009. Morse also holds a second-degree black belt in Tae Kwon Do through Young Brothers Tae Kwon Do Associates in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
